

SENATE RESOLUTION 179

By Herron

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Sue Anne McClanahan Stutts on the celebration of her seventy-seventh birthday.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should pay tribute to those citizens who are celebrating special occasions in their estimable lives; and

WHEREAS, Sue Anne McClanahan Stutts will celebrate her seventy-seventh birthday on July 24, 2007, a milestone that will be commemorated as yet another precious souvenir of life's rich pageant; and

WHEREAS, the daughter of William Franklin McClanahan, who was a farmer and owned a sawmill, and Eula Bell Brown McClanahan, a homemaker, Ms. Stutts was born and raised in Only, Tennessee; she is the loving granddaughter of George Gullett McClanahan and Polina Katherine Pinkerton McClanahan, and Jesse Richard "Bud" Brown and Mary Jane Wherry Brown; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Stutts grew up surrounded in the joyous company of her sister, Mary Brown McClanahan Townsend and brothers, the late William Hunt McClanahan, a former General Sessions Judge in Hickman County, and the late James Loyal McClanahan; and

WHEREAS, Sue Anne Stutts was named the Prettiest Girl of her 1948 graduating class at Hickman County High School in Centerville; and

WHEREAS, she married on December 24, 1952, and is the mother of three loving sons, William Barry Stutts, with wife Nancy; Rickey Lloyd Stutts, with wife Martha; and Michael Jerry Stutts; and

WHEREAS, in addition to her children, Ms. Stutts enjoys the company of her five grandchildren, Dustin Stutts, Misty Stutts, Sarah Stutts, Hunt Stutts, and Brittany Stutts; and two step-grandchildren, Zachary Cravens and Rachel Cravens; and

WHEREAS, Sue Anne Stutts is a highly respected member of her community; and

WHEREAS, for thirty-one years, she served with acumen and alacrity as an employee of Precision Rubber, which was later taken over by Wynn's Precision, in which position she earned the respect of her peers and superiors alike for the exemplary quality of her work, and she retired in 1993; and

WHEREAS, as Ms. Stutts, a strong and loyal Democrat, approaches her eighth decade, she is still an active and productive member of society; her favorite hobbies include painting, gardening, and bird watching; and

WHEREAS, we wish to grasp this golden opportunity to specially recognize one of Tennessee's most outstanding citizens on this very special occasion; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we hereby honor and congratulate Sue Anne McClanahan Stutts on the celebration of her seventy-seventh birthday and extend to her our best wishes for much continued success and happiness.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
